THE SENATORS HAVE RECOVERED THE ART OF BATTING,

AN INTERESTING GAME IN BALTIMORE.

Which Sullivan's Men Won in Ten Innings---The Evils of Sunday Ball Playing.

It begins to look as if the Washington Club was getting back in its old form. In the last two games the boys have batted well, and seem to have their eyes on the ball. This was the fault during the entire trip. To be sure, Saturday's game was lost through the wild and ineffective pitching of Daniels and Underwood, but the boys hit the ball barder than at any game during the trip. They kept up the same kind of litting yesterday, and, combined with Phillips' masterly pitching, sufficed to win the game, after an exciting contest

Sunday baseball is a novelty in Bairimore, and in consequence probably the largest crowd that has ever attended a game in that city witnessed it. There were $5.00 paid admissions, and nearly

Whistler was the hero of the occasion, and the Washington contingent, who went over expressly to see the game, howled themselves house when game, howled themselves hoarse when he sent the ball over the fence for a home run in the tenth inning, which wen the game. The boys played a brilliant fielding game, and so did the Ballmores. It was the latter's fielding that contributed so much to keeping the score down and made an extra inning necessary, for during the game the Washingtons had eleven men left on the bases, while the Orioles only had three. O'Brien, Whistler and Jor dan did the hitting for the home team and Hill put up a masterly game at

The same teams play again to-day, and the Washingtons ought, by keeping up their good playing, win again. Underwood will probably be the pitcher for Sullivan's men, while German will do the honors for the Orioles.

CAUSE FOR REJORING. One swallow doesn't make summer nor does one game won signify that a feam is in championship form and sure winners, but the excellent batting the boys have done the last two games is cause for rejoicing among those who have studied the scores each day and noted the weak hitting of the team. It looks as if fuck had changed.

Ever since Washington played its first Sunday game and lost it it has been on the down grade, and superstitious people have drawn the conclusion that in some way or other it was being punished for playing Sunday games. Of course that is all nonsense, but by the same ar-gument it ought now to win steadily.

Sullivan says the men have played in hard luck. They have batted hard, but could not place their hits out of the reach of the fielders. But in the last two games they have succeeded in so doing and the aggregate number of hits made is more than was made almost in the preceding five games. Such a change angurs well for a continuance of hitting. It puts confidence into the men of their shillty to hit, which is one of the biggest elements of success. This was what was needed, and there is no reason why the team should not now rapidly recover the ground lost on its disastrous trip.

SUNDAY GARDS. There seems to be quite a hadabaloo raised over the playing of Sunday games in Maryland. Governor Jackson and the Attorney General have declared that it is against the law and while most of the pastors of the city denounce it. But wherein is it wrong It is an exement pure and simple, and there is nothing immoral in a game of

Perhaps in deference to the sentiment of a great majority of people, i would be wiser not to play on Sunday but a game on the Sabbath, per se, h not harmful. There were 10,000 peo not harmful. There were 10,000 peo-ple at yesterday's games and not an arrest was made nor any breach of the peace committed. If the applause of the crowd was beisterous, it did not disturb any one, for the place where the game was played was away from the city. There was no figure sold on the grounds, hitherto an undestrable, but at the same time considered a necessary adjunct to a Sunday ball game. Bardjunct to a Sunday ball game. reis of ice water were placed around for the convenience of the crowd. As to the class of people who attended, in ad-dition to the regulars, the Haltimore San

By far the greater part of the crowd, however, consisted of wage workers, inhoring people and elects, and all entered into the shortwent of the sport with genuine seat, being of the workingners had their wives and children with them, and several times writing the game, while the suppressed in a cry made things meaning quart, the wall of a dissatisfied child broke out.

Those are the people who cannot see work day games, and their only possible trioyment and out-door recreation is obtainable on Sunday. He would be bigot of the worst stripe, who would say that their presence at a ball game or that day was sinful. The same ne cessity for Sunday games does not exist No. 5 F street northwest. He came here, for the greater majority of people home late betterday night, and as the here are through their work by the time the game commences.

Yet, if Sunday games were Inaugu-rated, they would prove ancreasful, and be absolutely free from demoralising influences, so long as there was no other ttraction than the mere sport. When liquer selling is introduced, as an ac-cessory to the drawing attractions, every came, whether it be on a week day or Sabbath, becomes an exil that bjures the game.

AMATEUR BASKBALL An exciting amateur game wa played on Blue Bird Hill yesterda between the Grundblers and the Grund ers, and the former won by a accre-ti to 55. The defeated club attribua fallure to win to the poor pitchin ! Preinchert, who had no command the ball whatever, but they hope to reverse the score next Sunday, when the two clubs meet again. Quite a crowd witnessed the game.

the Soldlers' Home grounds on Sunlay morning about 3 o'clock.

The shot which hilled Powell was fired by Wohn Dolan, who is a night watchman about the grounds. It seems that both the occupants of, and residents about the Home have been very much annoyed by tramps and dogs that howled at night. Dolan was in structed to shoot any dogs that came about in this way. On Saturday night Dolan was much annoyed by the howl.

being was much annoyed by the head-ing of some dogs, and he went to his window and fired in the direction of where they were barking.

As the noise caused he concluded he had driven them away, and went back to bed. At daylight yesterday morning the was awakened by an unknown man, who said that there was a deal body of a man in the road in front of the house. It was thus that Dolan first learned that he had shot a man instead of a dog. He immediately notified General Wil-cox of what had happened and also telephoned to the Second Precinct sta-

It was found that the ball had passed brough Powell's neck, and death must have been instantaneous. An inquest was held yesterday, but it was deter-nined that the shooting was purely ac-cidental and Dolan was discharged. were 8,500 paid admissions, and nearly 10,000 spectators, who witnessed the game.

The funeral will take place to-day and the expense will be defrayed by the management of the Home.
